

1 new motor company has joined JHyM

Japan H2 Mobility (JHyM) welcomes a new motor company, Hyundai Mobility Japan, for further support of hydrogen stations in Japan. Now, participating companies are 30 including 4 motor companies after we started with 11 companies in February of 2018.

Hyundai Mobility Japan Co., Ltd. is the first newcomer as motor company since JHyM established, which is the Japanese subsidiary of Hyundai Motor Company in South Korea. They sell ZEVs (Zero Emission Vehicles) and provide services for every mobility, such as the online platform that combines website and apps.
